Torkelson is used car sales manager at Lyons-Ryan Ford in Antioch.

The Truth About Rabies

(This is the first in a series of four articles about rabies. It is designed to present a broader knowledge of this disease which plagues Illinois. The articles have been prepared by Dr. Robert J. Flynn, Lake County Veterinarian.)

Is rabies a "modern" disease? Is it fatal? How much of a problem is it in Illinois... in Lake County?

Rabies, also called hydrophobia, is not a new disease. But it is just as fatal today as it was in ancient times. The earliest evidence of rabies is in wall murals of ancient civilizations. These show a mad dog running through the streets of a city terrorizing the inhabitants.

The first written record of rabies dates back to 500 B.C. It is that year Democritus, a Greek, reported seeing the disease. Yet it was not until 600 years later that medicine discovered rabid dogs actually caused hydrophobia in man.

North America was free from rabies in 1601 when this country's first settlement was established in Virginia. Not until 152 years later, 1753, was the disease seen here; it appeared in that first settlement in Virginia. By 1860, the disease had spread to most of the states east of the Mississippi River. The disease rapidly crossed the continent and appeared in California in 1898.

During this period there were reports concerning encounters with rabid skunks. These tales describe skunks attacking oxen, horses and dogs of settlers. In fact, entire mining camps were routed by the animals, the miners fearing the bites more than the odor.

Every one of the 50 states except Hawaii has been host to the disease at one time or another.

And what of today? Three states reported no rabies for the entire year of 1968, the most recent year for which national figures are available. Illinois was not one of these; in fact, only six states exceeded this state's total of 143 cases.

Rabid dogs and cats present a much greater public health problem than other animals. True, only about 10 percent of the rabid animals each year are dogs and cats but 65 percent of the human exposures are from contacts with a rabid dog or cat.

The 1969 total of 104 cases breaks down like this: dogs, 2; cats, 5; foxes, 8; cattle, 19; skunks, 68; and bats, 2. Thus, it can be seen that many other species, besides dogs, are infected.

Unhappily, one of these 104 cases came from Lake County! Contrast the above with the fact that there were 53 counties in Illinois which did not report rabies.

Committees Are Named, Pollution Board Added

Village Mayor Raymond Toft returned to the three-man committee in announcing his appointments for the current year at the village board meeting Monday night.

The trustees concurred in the selection of Mrs. Marilyn Stenberg as village clerk; Mario Delaney, village treasurer; Edward Jacobs, attorney; Jack Davis, police chief; Charles Maplethorpe, fire chief and superintendent of public works; Walter Delaney, building commissioner; Dr. James Kopriva, health officer; Edward Frazier, Civil Defense director; Chief Davis and Sgt. Elmer Pett, juvenile officers, and Earl Lowe, street department foreman.

Thomas Haley was appointed to a five year term to the Zoning Board of Appeals, but only one year as chairman.

Chairmanships left vacant were the Planning and Safety Commissions. These spots will be filled at the next meeting, Mayor Toft said.

Committees and their members are:

Street and lighting—Robert Wilton, chairman; Richard Radke and Vern Barnstable.

Surface water—Richard Burnette, chairman; Barnstable and Wilton.

Finance and audit—George Bartlett, chairman; Radke and Barnstable.

Insurance—Irv Walsh, chairman; Wilton and Burnette.

Industrial development—Bartlett, chairman; Walsh and Burnette.

Sidewalks—Radke, chairman; Barnstable and Burnette.

Weed control—Walsh, chairman; Barnstable and Burnette.

Sewer and water—Barnstable, chairman; Bartlett and Radke.

Public buildings and grounds—Walsh, chairman; Radke and Wilton.

Salaries—Radke, chairman; Wilton and Barnstable.

Police Department—Burnette, chairman; Radke and Wilton.

Fire department—Wilton, chairman; Burnette and Walsh.

Civil Defense—Burnette, chairman; Wilton and Walsh.

Pollution—Wilton, chairman; Walsh and Radke.

A discussion was reopened on the possibility of opening a road east of Main Street that will connect with Depot Street on the north.

Barnstable, who brought up the issue, said it would be helpful to the merchants if such a thoroughfare could be developed.

Mayor Toft said he favored such a street but he could not see the village providing all of the money to make such a road possible.

"I believe those interested should come up with some cash for such a project," he said.

The mayor was authorized to go ahead with the work on the village water pond in the north section of Westgate Subdivision when clarification comes through on the property title.

The pond, measuring about an acre, will be used for fishing during the summer and possibly an ice rink during the winter months.

Barnstable disclosed that a firm equipped with a television camera will be in Antioch Monday to make a survey to see what has caused surface water to flood the sanitary sewers in the Oak Knolls Subdivision and on Cunningham Street.

"These cameras can locate the problem," Barnstable said, "and if the price isn't too high we will come in with a recommendation for such a survey."

"We will have to do something to correct this problem," Barnstable said.

Barnstable guessed possibly that stubs may have not been sealed off which may have caused surface water to enter into the sanitary sewers.

"This can very easily flood out the Sanitary District plant," he said.

Barnstable said the surface water entering the sanitary sewers has come from the heavy rains the past two weeks.

Four firemen have been authorized to attend the University of Illinois Fire College at Champaign during the period of June 11 to 14 inclusive at a cost of $400. They are Bill Georgeson, George Boyd, Dale Fransch and Tim Martenson.

The board authorized $25 to be paid to cover the village's membership fee in the County Firemen's Association. The money is for the annual dues.

Sewer and water rates to homeowners outside the village have been raised 100 per cent on the Reckers, vice president of the State Bank of Antioch, is an area director for Antioch, Grant and Lake Villa Townships.

Paramedical Personnel Should Be Put To Work

A state official questioned whether a doctor is making the best use of his time by performing such tasks as weight and height measurements during a routine physical examination.

In addressing the eighth annual meeting of the Heart Association of Lake County held in Waukegan recently, State Senator Robert Coulson (31st district) called for greater use of paramedical personnel in performing the mechanical tasks of medicine.

Coulson said the doctor should have a less highly trained person perform the simpler routine medical procedures, "just as the architect has the draftsman do some of his work and the certified public accountant has the accountant perform some of his job."

"The doctor spends two-thirds of his life studying and developing his technique," Coulson said, "and then he is with us only a short while to avail his patients of his training."

According to the senator, providing more scholarships and

Tax Woes

Taxes seem to be the bane of our existence.

But we thought that we were holding our own until we saw a recent bulletin put out by the Taxpayers Federation of Illinois.

The federation points out that one of the arguments given to support passage of the state income tax act a year ago was that it would relieve the burden on the property taxpayer.

But, the federation adds, bills now before the state legislature would throw all of that into a cocked hat.

Some of the bills that are listed by the federation to back up their theory would by-pass the people and automatically increase property taxes. They include:

— Increase park district general fund rate from .10 to .12.

— Increase municipal library tax from .12 to .15.

— Increase library district tax from .12 to .15.

— Increase county general tax from .10 to .30.

And the list goes on and on. The federation suggest that citizens should discuss the bills with their legislators.

We suggest the same. Maybe if we talk long enough and hard enough they will listen to the ones that sent them down there in the first place.

It is worth a try.

Save Your Gripes

We have heard a lot of gripes lately about the Antioch Fire Department members blocking up traffic when a fire call is put out.

We think the gripes are unfair.

First of all, it doesn't happen that often. And secondly, no one—except the firemen—can be in that big of a hurry.

It certainly is an inconvenience and we acknowledge that. But you first must remember that there are only 10 parking spots for 44 members of the department.

There just isn't enough parking space for the firemen.

And another thing you should remember is that it may be your house that they are abandoning their vehicles to try and go save.

So when the passageway is blocked, we suggest you go another way and save your gripes for something that really needs it.

Or else dig into your pockets for more taxes to develop a better situation for the firemen that are doing a tremendous job in our opinion.

port a single case of rabies in 1969.

Down through the years, improved methods for the control of animal rabies have greatly reduced the number of annual cases. When dog vaccination became a law in Illinois, cases fell from a high 206 rabid dogs in 1954 to 41 in 1955. This marked decrease in animal rabies has been responsible for a corresponding drop in human cases. Since 1954 there has not been a single case in man in the entire state. Much of this drop is also due to the effectiveness of the Pasteur series of vaccinations. In the past 30 years, over one-

Antioch High Science Winners

Jim McDowall—Psychological Experimentations on Dugesia Durotocephala.

Brian Pedersen—Weathercasting.

The culmination of this year's science exhibitions came when Antioch Community High School students exhibited at the Assembly Hall of the University of Illinois at Urbana. These students are to be commended for their excellent work and for the honors they have brought to themselves and their school.

Most students have been exposed to science project work in their pre-high school years, which gives them the fundamentals for preparing exhibition work. Upon entering Antioch Community High School, students are encouraged to continue this work but are not required. Thus the total number of projects will be small and the quality high since usually only students dedicated to their particular scientific interest will pursue this endeavor. These projects are not begun the month before the fair and ended the evening of the fair—instead these projects have been begun years ago and probably will never really end as most of these projects will have a life-long effect on each student.

They receive little reward for their work, aside from satisfaction—satisfaction for a job well done in an area that is most interesting and important to them.

Chris Taylor began working with Statistical Analysis well over a year ago and has spent many hours of active work on her project. She is interested in a comparison of attitude of pre-teen students in a graded vs. non-graded school situation. Chris received a second rating at the district fair.

Nicki Modaber, gaining expertise in graphoanalysis, has worked for two years on her project. She has collected handwriting samples from more than 100 scientists and made a study attempting to correlate handwriting patterns with scientific attitudes. Nicki's project won a first award at the district level. Because of the controversial nature of Nicki's project, she received a third at state. It is impossible for a project such as this to stop. Nicki's perseverance will carry her ever further. Her deep interest cannot help but influence her later life.

Gary Soland began collecting fossil rocks 9 years ago. He has collected hundreds of fossils. He has traveled through many states collecting the specimens. Gary received an outstanding at district and an outstanding at state. Gary's project plays an integral part in his future as he plans a career in geology.

Brian Pedersen's interest in meteorology began several years ago. He has a log of daily weather conditions dating back for three years. He prepared his own daily forecast for over a year. He built much of his own equipment and is considering a career in meteorology. Brian received a first both at district and at state.

James McDowall, a senior received an outstanding at both district and state on his project "Psychological Experimentation on Dugesia Durotocephala." Endless hours over a three year period and exhausting research led Jim to this honor. He also presented a paper on his research and his paper was chosen as the top paper in his category in the state of Illinois.

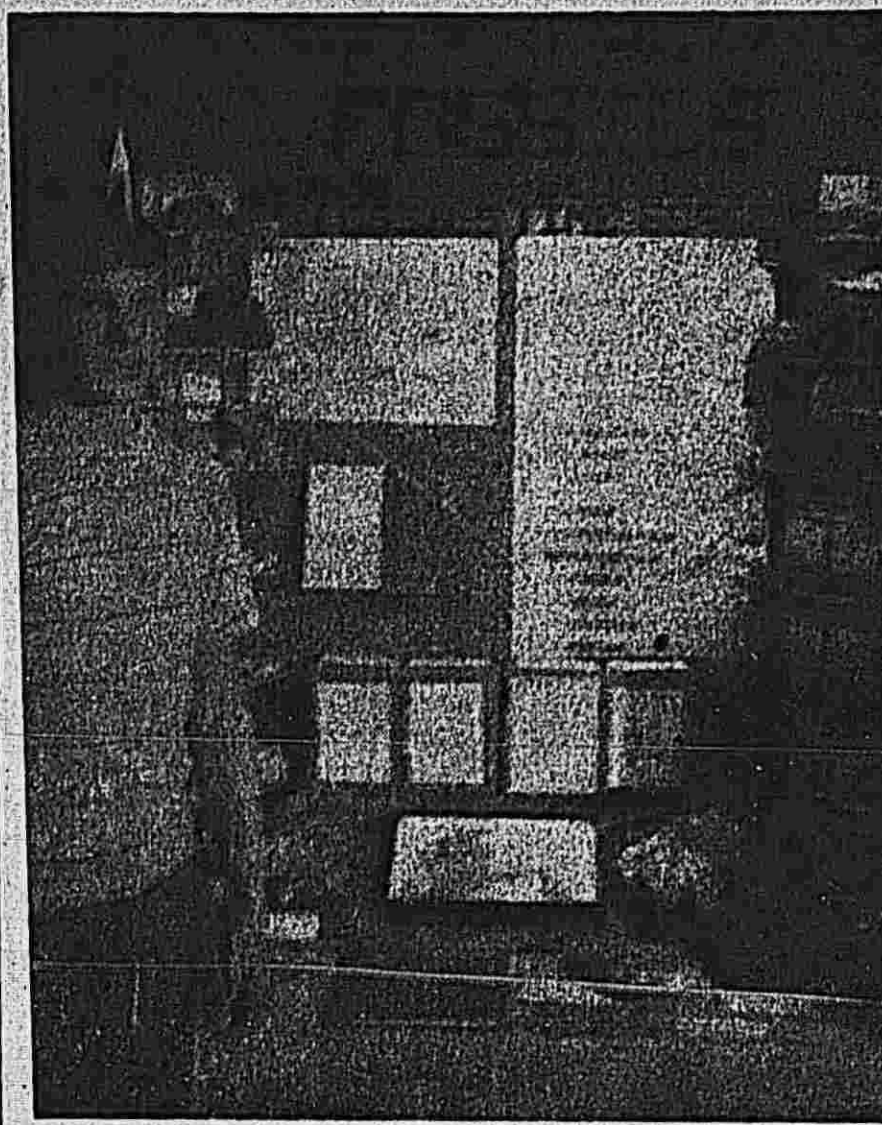

Dual Job Is Census Request

Information on the number of persons holding more than one job and the total of hours worked at each job will be collected during a survey to be conducted in this area during the week of May 17, according to Theodore F. Olson, Director of the regional office of the Bureau of the Census in Chicago.

Local interviews will be part of a nationwide effort to measure dual job holding in the U.S. They will be conducted in conjunction with the Bureau's monthly survey of employment and unemployment. Employment statistics are gathered monthly by the Bureau for the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics to provide a continuing measure of the economic health of the Nation. Households to be interviewed here are part of a scientifically designed sample of the U.S. population.

Although some of the questions to be asked are similar to those asked in the 10-year census taken as of April 1, Census officials say the monthly survey is essential to provide a continuing picture of current trends.

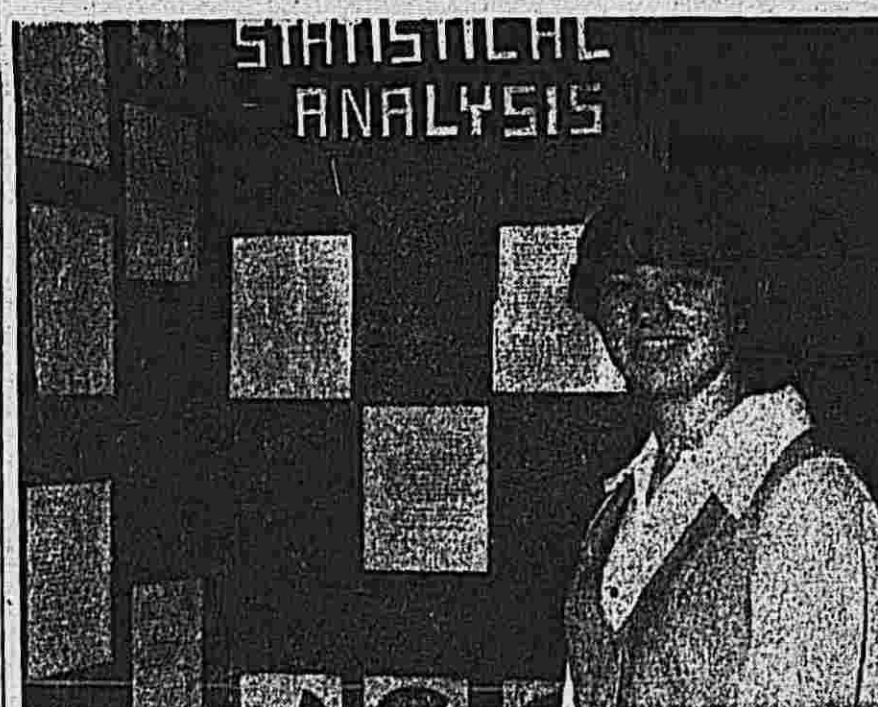

Facts about individuals collected in the survey are held confidential by law.

work and the academic preparation and experience needed to establish an effective program.

Wild has come up through the ranks and served as a patrolman in Ypsilanti, Michigan and as Chief of Police in Dowagiac and Portage, Michigan. In the latter community, he established the first police department for a city of 30,000 residents. In addition, he served for four years in the Army Counter Intelligence.

Wild has a Bachelor's and a Master's Degree in police administration from Michigan State University and presently is President of the Illinois Law Enforcement Education Association. As an assistant professor and coordinator of the law enforcement program at Harper College, he established and administered a two-year associate degree and a one-year certificate program in law enforcement and an associate degree program in Industrial-Retail Security. His most recent educational experience with the University of Illinois, Circle Campus, was a full-time director of a U.S. Department of Justice grant to provide command officer conferences for selected command personnel from the 32 major city police departments across the United States.

"We are instituting a two-year associate degree program in law enforcement at College of Lake County. The purpose of the program is to assist present law enforcement officers to better perform their responsibilities and to prepare interested students for a career in law enforcement," stated Wild. "The program is essentially an educational program and not a training course. We will be looking for principles, theories, and techniques as opposed to the specific 'how to do' approach of training. Accordingly, we will prepare individuals so that they can obtain a greater flexibility in the adjustment of techniques as society changes."

A citizen's advisory committee has been established to provide community advice and assistance to Mr. Wild in the establishment of the curriculum for the law enforcement program. The program is scheduled to begin with the fall semester, 1970. Although primarily concerned with the instructional aspect of the law enforcement program, Wild will also be involved in instituting a formal campus security operation which, as now viewed, will not be a typical police force. The purpose will be to provide security for both students and the institution.

Watch Out, Don't Hit Utilities

It could happen when a neighbor plants a tree or a building contractor rushes to complete excavation for the new house down the block — a solid 'clank' of metal hitting metal.

That simple 'clank' could mean the end of the cake baking in someone's gas oven or a chilly spring evening without household heat for the family next door, warn officials of Northern Illinois Gas Company.

There were nearly a thousand cases of damage to NI-Gas distribution facilities last year, mostly because an eager digger failed to contact the utility before lifting the shovel, according to Roy W. Wiedow, coordinator of maintenance.

"Contractors are the greatest offenders," Wiedow said. "They either do not contact us to locate our pipes or fail to take proper precautions to uncover them when they do."

While no personal injuries resulted from last year's accidents, property damage totaled more than $100,000. These costs are billed to the homeowner or contractor responsible for the break in gas main or service pipes, Wiedow added.

NI-Gas representatives will locate the company's underground facilities without charge for prospective diggers who contact the company's nearest office. Approximately $600,000 was spent by the utility in "watch and protect" activity in 1969 alone, Wiedow said.

American Legion Auxiliary News

By Del Jahneke

"It's Poppy Time — U.S.A." states Mrs. Henry Heinsohn, Lake Zurich, District Poppy Chairman of the 10th District American Legion Auxiliary. "May all of us pause once again to honor the fallen soldiers of all wars. Their sacrifice of life left us forever in their debt because we have known the tomorrow they would never know."

American Legionnaires and Auxiliary members will stand on street corners, in front of stores, banks, and factories—everywhere possible, offering their little red flowers of memorial to the public. In hopes they will wear the poppy of remembrance and put coins in the poppy cans so that this memorial to fallen heroes will be a living tribute to their memory.

"We ask the public to 'WEAR A POPPY' also, since each poppy was made by a handicapped veteran whose only income may be the amount paid him by the American Legion and the Auxiliary, to make it. All extra money paid in over the cost of materials can only be used in rehabilitation and child welfare work for the indigent veteran and his dependents."

Poppy Days are May 22nd and 23rd. F. A. Swenson and Mrs. Bernard De Vries, Poppy Chairmen for the Antioch American Legion and the Auxiliary are hoping that a generous public will be wearing a poppy on these days.

A reminder that the 10th District Child Welfare Picnic for 150 children from three Lake County Children's Homes, will be held on May 24th, at the Lake Region's American Legion Home at Fox Lake, at noon. This annual affair is co-sponsored by the 10th District American Legion and the Auxiliary.

There will be a Board Meeting of the 10th District Auxiliary on Monday, May 25th, at 7 p.m., at the Zion-Benton American Legion Home. A pot luck supper will precede the meeting. Mrs. Edward Jahneke, District Communications and Publicity Chairman, and Mrs. Ray Rathmann, District Finance Committee member, plan to be in attendance.

The Sharvin's Unit Juniors of North Chicago won first prize in the state with their choral group singing competition at the State Juniors Conference in Lincoln, May 16th. Their music director is Mrs. Norman Holt, North Chicago. Approximately 45 junior and senior members from the 10th District Auxiliary were present.

At the recent meeting of the Antioch American Legion Auxiliary No. 748, the Gold Star members were honored. Mrs. Myra Randall, Gold Star Mother; Mrs. Ollie Tweed and Mrs. Ralph Fields, Gold Star Sisters, were special guests, and were presented gifts from the Antioch Unit. Those Gold Star members unable to attend, will have their presents sent to them. As Mrs. Earl Horton, Gold Star Chairman, also was unable to be there, Mrs. Joseph Horton graciously fulfilled her obligations with the aid of committee members Mrs. Barney Nevelier and Mrs. Al Soman.

"Jed" Rokchartchareon of Thailand, American Field Service exchange student, kept his audience's rapt attention with his entertaining talk about his country and its customs.

A brief business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Ray Rathmann, President. She appointed Mrs. Frank Kennedy as chairman of the Nominating Committee. The other four members, elected from the floor, were Mrs. Joseph Horton, Mrs. Lester Zitkus, Mrs. John W. Horan and Mrs. Ralph Fields. They will present the state of unit officers for the ensuing year at the June meeting, and election of officers will take place then.

Due to conflicting vacation plans, the next meeting of the Antioch American Legion Auxiliary No. 748 is scheduled a week earlier—it will be held on June 1st, at 8 p.m. at the Antioch Legion Home.

The Illini Girl's State Chairman, Mrs. Joseph Horton, announced that the Antioch Community High School faculty has selected this year's Girl Stater and her alternate. Ronna Andrews, the daughter of the Roger Andrews, has been chosen Girl Stater, and her alternate is Kathleen Wurster. To be selected as a Girl Stater and Alternate is the highest honor a Junior can achieve, outside of scholastic honors. Illini Girl's State, a mythical state of Illinois government, participated in by some 550 girls, will be held at MacMurray College in Jacksonville, June 16 to 23.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

An explanation of "Soul" is given in the Lesson-Sermon on "Soul and Body" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, May 24.

basis of an amended ordinance adopted by the trustees.

The measures revised an ordinance passed in September 1962.

Under the old ordinance, the homeowner outside the village paid 1 1/2 times more than the homeowners living within the village limits.

The trustees authorized $3,903.20 to be paid for insurance on village equipment and vehicles.

The trustees on recommendation of the insurance committee dropped collision on village equipment which saves the village about $900 in premiums.

The board approved a health and hospitalization plan for village employees by the Equitable Life Insurance Co. of Chicago.

The premium for employees with families amounts to $44.34 with the village paying $22.34 and the employee the balance.

These are just a few of the telephone facts in "The World's Telephones in 1968," a collection of world-wide telephone statistics AT&T assembles each year.

Since it takes almost a full year to gather data from telephone companies and administrations around the world, all figures are for January 1, 1969.

The 3,608,000 residents of the city of Chicago had 2,269,884 telephones, or 62.9 phones for every 100 persons.

Other leading Chicago area communities include Evanston with 77, Oak Park 66.7, Aurora and Cicero 55.5, Elgin 54.8, Berwyn 50.8, Waukegan 47.9, Oak Lawn 44.7, East Chicago 44.3 and Gary 43.6.

Elsewhere around the state, Springfield leads with 70.6, followed by Champaign with 64.7, Rock Island 64, Rockford 63.1, Decatur 62.9, Peoria 62.7 and Joliet 52.2.

By January 1, 1969, the United States telephone user finally had forged into first place as the world's most talkative, taking the title from the Canadians who had held first place for 17 years.

The average U.S. telephone user made 701 calls in 1968. The average Canadian made 692.9 calls, followed by the Icelandic 632 calls and the Swede's 621

Actually, the whole world isn't represented in "The World's Telephones in 1968." Where there ought to be figures for North Viet Nam and North Korea, only the initials n.a.—not available—appear.

Probably the world's least talkative telephone users are in Niger. In this small West African country, the average phone user made only 8/10 of a call in 1968. This may be explained by the low rate of only eight phones for each 100 of that country's people.

The number of phones in the world went up 7 per cent during 1968, reaching almost 238 million. This was the 14th consecutive year that growth has exceeded 6 per cent.

Although the United States had 45.9 per cent of the world's phones, its telephone growth rate in 1968 was only 5.3 per cent.

A dozen new places were added to the international communications network. Overseas calls continued to increase at an annual rate of 25 per cent.

Ninety-six per cent of the world's phones can be connected to the Bell System network. You can talk to any of the 20,000 phones on Guam, for instance. But don't try the rest of the Marianas. The other 830 phones aren't available to Bell System callers.

Chicago Area Phone Use Strong

The Chicago area's fondness for the telephone remains as strong as ever, according to American Telephone and Telegraph Company's "The World's Telephones in 1968."

The people of suburban Skokie continue to hold the third-place spot in number of phones per population in the United States.

The suburb's 143,000 citizens had 123,424 phones, or 86.3 phones for every 100 persons, as of January 1, 1969.

Only Washington, D.C.—with 98.1 phones per 100 persons—and White Plains, N. Y.—with 87.5—were ahead of Skokie in ratio of phones to population. The U.S. ratio is 54.02, second to tiny Monaco, which leads the nations of the world with 60.43.

Police Institute May Be Initiated

The Lake County Law Enforcement Assistance Planning Committee at a regular meeting held on Tuesday, May 12, went on record in favor of the establishment of a Police Training Institute at Camp Logan in Zion.

Some months back, the Police Training Institute, Division of the University Extension of the University of Illinois, proposed the development of such a facility somewhere in northeastern Illinois.

Last November, the Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police, Inc., in a resolution commended the University Extension and University of Illinois for this proposal and urged that a site be selected at an early date in the northeastern part of the state.

Jacob J. Novak, former Chief of Police of North Chicago, is the Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Illinois Chiefs of Police, Inc.

This matter is now in the hands of Eugene Irwin, a special investigator of a project on the feasibility and site study for a training school similar to the one at Urbana-Champaign.

Roper And Belcher Win Features At Waukegan

Bob Roper of Chicago and Chuck Belcher of Park City won the late model and hobby stock features at the Waukegan Speedway Sunday night respectively. Roper also won the first heat passing Al Gutche of Bristol right at the finish line.

The first powder puff derby ever run on the asphalt turned out to be a real thriller Sunday night. Pat Grogan of Zion won the race which was shortened due to a spectacular collision in front of the grandstands. Sixteen women started the night's race, so with this interest, another "powder puff" has been scheduled for Sunday night, May 31.

With a large Sunday crowd on hand, a special "backwards-forwards" race was added with Bob King of Chicago crashing home the winner. Next Sunday night the special attraction will be a "beat your neighbor" race. Missing from the feature field Sunday night was the famous No. 99 of Dolton's Ray Young. Young damaged his steering gear in a heat race collision with Vern Browne of Wauconda. Young stepped into Frank Cabrera's Chevelle and finished 10th after spinning early. Young had fast time in his own car with a 14.33 lap.

Browne had his best night of the year winning both the trophy dash and the third heat, but he dropped back in the feature after brushing the wall and finished 7th. Browne also clocked third fast time with a 14.39 lap, which is the fastest of his short stock car career.

Roper, after a slower than usual qualifying lap, started near the front in the feature and wasted no time in taking the lead from Paul Craddock of Round Lake at the end of the first lap. The race was stopped in the third lap after Jacques Terault and Ray Bush tangled in the fourth turn and stalled there blocking the track.

The restart found Roper in the lead, followed by Carl Major of Chicago, Al Gutche, Bob Anzinger of McHenry, Cossman, Browne and Young. Cossman got by Anzinger for third money in the 8th lap and finished in that position behind Roper and Major.

Lee Schuler of Lockport was moving up good until he spun in the 19th lap and dropped to the rear of the field. He came back to finish 6th, which considering his bad accident in Saturday's races, was a very fine finish.

Although Roper led most of the way, he had to contend with Major's constant challenge from the rear until Major was trapped behind some lapped cars and dropped back to finish 10 car lengths behind in second.

Antioch Area Youths Urged 'Get In Simx Swim'

Mrs. Marty Berry, coach of the Antioch Swim Team, has issued an invitation to youngsters in the Antioch area to join the swim squad. The Antioch Swim Team is a part of the swimming program offered the community by the Antioch Lions Club. The State Bank of Antioch is the team sponsor.

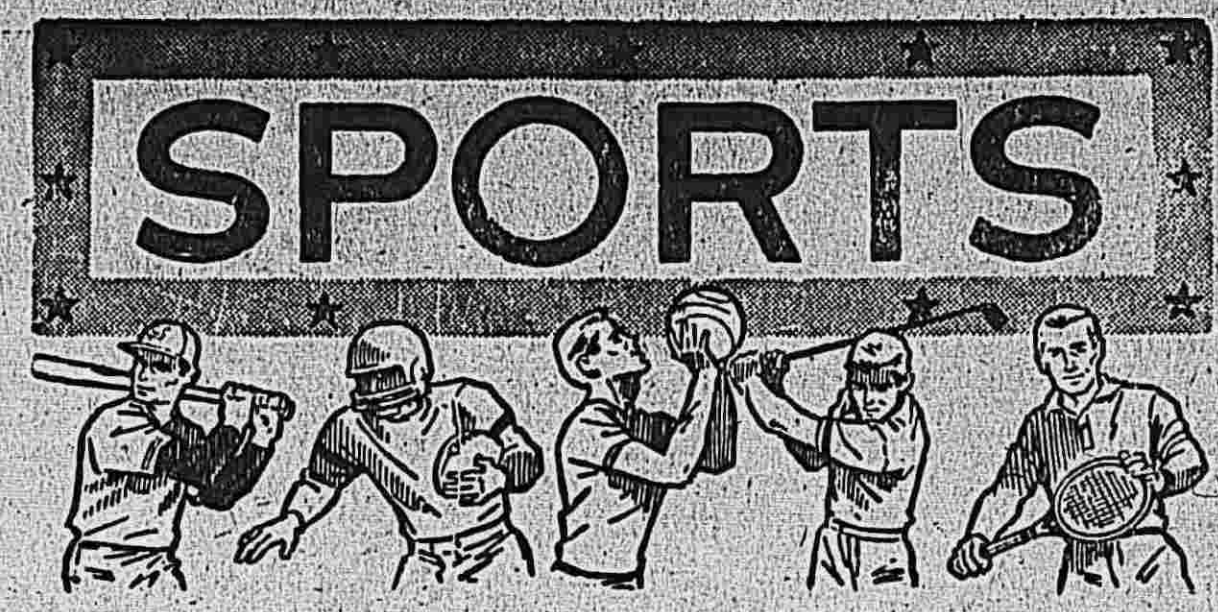

It is competitive age group swimming for boys and girls between 6 and 17. The amazing part of the Swim Club program is the spirit and interaction of the boys and girls. The five points an 8 year old earns for a first place for the team is just as important as the five points earned by a 17 year old. Unless one has seen a 17 year old cheering for an 8 year old, it is hard to believe. There is not another competitive sport that creates this type of strong and healthy attitude in a group with such a wide range of ages. Some authorities say "Children should learn to compete at an early age and in a healthy environment if they are going to be successful as adults."

Antioch is proud for having such a fine swimming program which is not available in most communities of 3000, and it must be remembered that the program is competing against communities which are 4 to 20 times larger. Last year's team was the strongest, as evidenced by the fact that 22 of the 40 records were broken. Mrs. Berry expects an even stronger team this year, but the team needs additional members.

There are five age groups: 8 and under, 9-10, 11-12, 13-14 and 15-17. The events are freestyle, backstroke, butterfly, breaststroke and individual medley, all four strokes. The relay teams, freestyle and medley are mixed, two girls and two boys. The fee schedule is $10.00 for the first child, $8.00 for the second, $5.00 for the third and the total family membership does not exceed $23.

Any youngster interested in joining the Antioch Swim Team may secure registration forms at the State Bank, Antioch Savings & Loan Association and the First National Bank. Non Antioch residents may call 312-872-2479 for information and registration.

Wilmot Opening Postponed

Wilmot, Wis.—Despite efforts by the officials of the Interstate Racing Association and the Kenosha County Fair Association, the opening race of the year at Wilmot had to be postponed. Several workers of each group were at Wilmot early Saturday morning and were getting water drained off the track and readying the Speedway for the opening.

Good progress on both projects was being made and then afternoon showers wiped out their efforts and the decision was made to postpone the opening until next Saturday night, May 23.

The extra week will help to assure the best possible facilities for the first race of the Seventies. The completion of new grandstand sections had been finished the previous week and Wilmot can now seat approximately 7,000 fans. This is even more than the expected expansion was to provide in additional seating.

Champions Roger Otto, Al Schill, Duane Harris and Don Sorce in the modifieds and Chuck Chadwick in the Sportsman's stocks, all reported they will be ready this coming Saturday night for the delayed opening.

From the Coatesville, Pa., Record: "One of the sidelights of the campus coddling of disruptive demonstrators in recent years is the drop in donations to colleges and universities. The normal level of contributions from graduates to their alma mater has declined in many instances, and the reason frequently cited has been the failure of school administrators to punish those who use destruction and obstruction as a means of registering their grievances. No matter what the cause, graduates are not going to give their dollars to a college only to see a mob of radicals tear down its facilities, go scot-free and be readmitted for a repeat performance. We cannot fault this logic."

Selence tells us that no two snowflakes are alike, but along about this time of the year, when you've seen one, you've seen them all.—Stan Ihlenfeldt, in the Elkhorn Independent.

Edison To Construct Precipitator

Commonwealth Edison Company will start construction this month on a previously announced $2 million-plus air pollution control project at its Waukegan generating station near Greenwood Ave. and the lake.

John Hughes, Waukegan district manager, said the company will install an electrostatic precipitator on its unit number 6 for service in 1971. When it is in service, all seven regularly operated Waukegan units will be equipped with highly efficient air pollution control devices. The precipitator has been ordered from Research-Cottrell, Inc. Three other coal-fired peaking units at Waukegan, that are used only during periods of heavy customers demand, will be retired in 1972.

"The Waukegan unit with its new precipitator will collect over 99 per cent of the ash in the coal," Hughes said. "The precipitator operates much the same way that static electricity on a comb attracts bits of paper. An electrostatic charge is established in the stack that attracts dust particles to metal plates. From there the particles are funneled to hoppers and collected for removal. This program will bring the station well under the newly enacted air pollution criteria in the state."

In the last 40 years Edison has spent over $50 million on its air pollution control program. The air pollution control project this year at Waukegan generating station is part of a clean air program Edison will carry out in the next five years that will cost over $35 million.

"Edison has had a long-standing commitment to improve the air quality standards at its Waukegan generating station. About 15 years ago we installed precipitators on the station's largest units. Precipitators and related equipment were also installed at a cost of about $3.6 million in 1958 and 1962 when two more units were added at Waukegan.

Hughes said that when the current project is completed next year, Edison will have spent over $8 million to equip Waukegan station with air pollution control devices that will result in cleaner air for its neighbors.

NI-Gas Has Successful Year In '69

The year 1969 was another successful one for Northern Illinois Gas Company.

In the utility's annual report now being mailed to about 85,000 shareholders, NI-Gas chairman Marvin Chandler reported that sales, customer levels, revenues, earnings, and dividends all reached record highs.

Therm sales of gas rose by 18 per cent. Total revenues were $280 million, up 10 percent over 1968, with commercial revenues rising by 20 percent. Earnings for the year, as previously reported, amounted to $2.57 a share, 10 percent higher than the $2.34 recorded in 1968. The $2.57 earnings figure was before a write-down of 56¢ a share to anticipate the disposition in 1970 of its subsidiary, Apple River Chemical Company.

The number of customers increased by more than 37,000, including 7,000 added through the acquisition of the gas company in Hannibal, Missouri, by NI-Gas' utility subsidiary, Great River Gas Company. Also, some 10,000 residential customers converted their heating plants to gas from other fuels. The company's customer total at the end of 1969 was 1,052,800, Chandler said.

In commenting on the future, Chandler said, "Our target for 1970 is to resume the rate of gain we showed during the five-year period 1963 to 1967 (10c to 18¢ a share annually), but perhaps less than the 23¢ a share gain of 1969."

The NI-Gas chairman also told shareholders that the company is studying ways that would permit it to take advantage of certain non-utility opportunities emanating from, while related to, its utility business. Chandler said some of the more promising ones are gas exploration, coal production or gasification, industrial land development, production of automatic remote meter reading devices, promotion of the natural gas fuel cell, and development of waste disposal systems.

The VA says about 3,300 payments (not to exceed $1,600 each) toward the purchase of an automobile will be made in fiscal year 1971 to veterans who lost the use of an extremity or were blinded during military service.

man and Young had worked through from the rear of the field and both passed Roper to take over second and third respectively.

In the 20th lap Cossman gained the inside advantage on Freeman, but the two cars locked together right at the start-finish line with the pair darting through the infield water like two motorboats, complete with rooster-tails. Both Young and Roper, realizing these two would fly back on the track in the second turn completely out of control, almost stopped to avoid the consequences.

When the cars sorted themselves out, Cossman had the lead followed by Freeman, Young and Roper. Freeman dropped to fourth on the next lap with Young right on Cossman's rear bumper.

The track was very slippery from Freeman's and Cossman's infield trip making passing near impossible in the first and second turn, but Young did find the secret coming out of the fourth

Unable to even dial a telephone, many handicapped persons face the bleak prospect of living in a communications vacuum. turn to slip inside Cossman and they finished. Freeman took the lead. Before Jim could fourth and Bob May of Gurnee slip back into second, Roper shot finished-fifth ahead of Major and into that position and that's how Bob Anzinger of McHenry.
